Song description:

Love & War erupts from the sound of crickets, intimate vocals and an acoustic fingerpicking guitar to a big anthemic country rock chorus, describing the battle to reclaim lost love. The picturesque lyrics uses nature imaginary (the wind, the moon, the fields etc) as metaphors to express the narrators internal fights, hopes, and worries in a love triangular drama.

Musicians:

Andreas: Vocals, bass, guitars, keyboards, production

Dustin Welch: Fingerpicking and slide guitars.

Jack Cowens and Dave Oliver: drums.

Upcoming album:

Andreas' upcoming album Keep Sane (to be released in late 2020) is inspired by his many visits to The House Of Songs in Austin, Texas. The songs are packed with Americana and Alt Country influences, picked up through co-writes with local writers many of whom contributes to the album. The album is a clear departure from Andreas' Indie rock inspired debut.

Previous releases:

Three singles from Andreas' solo debut album Disturbed where supported by British BBC6 Radio and received good radio play in the UK and abroad, with several hundred stations playing his songs. The Disturbed album also received many great reviews on blogs and online mags. In January/February/March 2019 Andreas toured solo in the US (California, Texas), New Zealand and Germany

Background:

Andreas has a background as a pop writer/producer for people like: Kevin Lyttle (Atlantic US), Stephanie Heinzmann (Universal Germany), Vybez Kartel and Delirium/Nerina Pallot. As a part of The Funktuary he was responsible for putting together Armand Van Helden's "My My My" a big hit in the United Kingdom and a club cult classic worldwide. Andreas is also a busy live musician having toured extensively, worldwide with bands like Drum'n'Bass/Reggae festival favourites the Dub Pistols.

Live Andreas performs his songs solo, stripped down and acoustic and occasionally semi electric with a three peice band. For more info contact: Andreas@AndreasSjensen.com
